

Course “Digital Media in Distance education”

Location: Vienna, Austria

09/04/2023 – Course introduction. Introduction to Distance Education

- Introduction to the course, the host organization, the participants and the external week activities.
- Icebreaker activities.
- Presentations of the participants.
- Identification of needs and goals for each participant and relevant populations.
- How digital expectancy will change teaching.

10/04/2023 – Introduction to Distance Education

- Meaning and Importance of Creativity in Modern Education.
- Digital tools as part of online education
- Synchronous and Asynchronous distance education.
- Hybrid education: the key for a modern education.

11/04/2023 – Introduction to Digital media

- Digital media in onsite and distance education.
- How to choose appropriate media for support learners?
- Project Based Learning Methodology – importance and practice
- Images, animations, sounds and videos - online free media resources.

12/04/2023 – Creating Online Educational Material

- Educational Design
- Visual Design
- Learning about Storyboards
- Creating Online Educational Material with Power Point

13/04/2023 – Producing Educational Videos

- Introduction in basic video theory
- Basic principles about making video lessons
- Education through moving image: case studies

- Simple programs for making video lessons

14/04/2023 – Integration of digital media in teaching process

- Making an educational video (Workshop)
- Presentation of group task activities.
- Course evaluation: round-up of acquired competencies, feedback, and discussion;
- Awarding of the course Certificate of Attendance

15/04/2023 – Integration of digital media in teaching process

- Making an educational video (Workshop)
- Presentation of group task activities.
- Course evaluation: round-up of acquired competencies, feedback, and discussion;
- Awarding of the course Certificate of Attendance